This charming and elegant 1940 stone cottage has been lovingly restored, preserving the period architecture with its original stone walls while incorporating beautiful and modern kitchens and baths. Multiple decks take advantage of the long range views. Main floor deck dining area is covered with a vaulted arts and crafts roof. Main living area is large enough to hold a grand piano and multiple seating areas. The formal dining room easily seats 12. The grounds have extensive landscaping to enhance the setting and provide privacy to the entrance and parking area. A fully equipped guest suite above the detached garage has 1.5 baths, full kitchen and private deck.

Prepare to be impressed by this stunning lodge style cottage. Meticulously maintained and a pleasure to visit. This gorgeous property feels like a mini pre-war ski lodge with it's massive stone fireplaces and walls. The owners have maintained all of the character while adding multiple windows to take advantage of the views and add light. The meandering stone walkway from the parking area leads to the house you and your clients will never want to leave.
